

Schoolhouse of Wonder Camps at Umstead State Park

What's different?

	Umstead Amphitheater	Umstead Whispering Pines
 Locations	Campers at the Amphitheater will visit base camps they may have been to before including Toadstool, Coyote, Otter, Horseshoe and more.	Campers at Whispering Pines will visit and explore completely new spots throughout Umstead.
 Drop off &amp; Pick up	Drop off and pick up location is a little faster to get to and the parking area is paved.	The drop off and pick up location is 5-10 minutes farther into the park and requires driving on a gravel road.
 Facilities	Campers will be able to use the park restroom for bathrooms and changing. During rain or storms, campers will use the picnic shelters.	Campers will be able to use port-a-poties and changing tarps during the day. During rain or storms, campers will use the dining hall for shelter.
 Hiking	The Umstead Amphitheater location involves a little more hiking.	The Whispering Pines location involves a little less hiking.

What's the same?

 Staff	Skilled and experienced counselors – some familiar, some new. All love mentoring children, value empathy, and thrive being outdoors.
 Activities	Stories, games, whittling and critter searches at each location. Campers at both locations will cool off at creek time.
 Heart &amp; Soul	Both locations will be guided by Schoolhouse of Wonder's mission, values, policies, procedures, and child-centered style of behavior management.
 Our Money-Back Guarantee	By day's end, we'll send your child home dirty, tired, and happy – or we will refund their remaining camp tuition. It's that simple. Guaranteed.
